
Thomas Jefferson to James Monroe, April 13,
1808, from Thomas Jefferson and James Monroe
Correspondence, Transcribed and Edited by Gerard W.
Gawalt, Manuscript Division, Library of Congress

Thomas Jefferson to James Monroe

Washington Apr. 13. 08.

I was mistaken in supposing Alexander Baring arrived. It is Charles Baring, not connected in Business with the other. Your letter therefore must be to A. Baring in London, and if you can send it to me by duplicates we can use one in England, & the other in France. Affectionate salutations.

FC (Jefferson Papers, Library of Congress).